

GLOBE | 2010

Vancouver, Canada • March 24-26, 2010

RECORD NUMBER OF COUNTRIES TO PARTICIPATE IN POST-COPENHAGEN TALKS AT GLOBE 2010

For Immediate Release

Vancouver, Canada – A new wave of international exhibitors and delegations from some of the world's largest economies will add their voices to the vibrant, engaging and action-oriented conversation at GLOBE 2010, being held March 24 to 26 in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Exhibitors from Australia, Germany, Japan, and Taiwan will, for the first time in many years, join a stellar list of returnees for the world-renowned biennial GLOBE conference on business of the environment. From the United States to the United Arab Emirates, this year's list of participants is long, diverse and sure to provide new perspectives and innovative ideas.

Other countries exhibiting at GLOBE 2010 include: Austria, Brazil, France, Israel, Italy, Korea, The Netherlands, Poland, Russia, Switzerland and the United Kingdom. Delegations will also come in groves including from: Belgium, Brunei Darussalam, China, Colombia, Denmark, Ecuador, Estonia, Guatemala, Hong Kong, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Latvia, Lithuania, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Pakistan, Portugal, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Thailand and Ukraine.

With dozens of international delegations from every continent and each hemisphere, the 20th anniversary of the GLOBE conference will again live up to its name. Along with conference sessions focused on Climate Change, Carbon Management and Energy of the Future – participants will also be offered sessions on Water and Clean(er) Technology.

GLOBE 2010 comes at an important juncture. Copenhagen will have just taken place, possibly providing a new roadmap to a more sustainable future. Increasingly, the focus will not only be on reducing carbon and saving water, but also on what comes next. What is sustainable value, and how will we create and measure it? An international list of world-renowned speakers, exhibitors and a wide array of social networking opportunities make GLOBE the perfect place to develop new contacts and do business.
